Victims Sent to Hospital

Vienna to Hollywood
Her Mission

FORT ST. JOHN, B.C., May 22.—Crude oil was the motive power behind the axe of his relatives, with whom he lived, Ross Jeffery, homesteader about three miles east of Fort St. John, cut down Monday morning, attacking and wounding his brothers, step-father and young half-brother with an axe.

After getting up from bed with a gasoline burning lamp, he had breakfast and livestock, Jeffery fed but gave himself no time to eat. At 4:30 a.m. he pummeled his wife, who was in bed, and is now in custody. He will appear before Magistrate Abbott at 10 a.m. today.

The injured relatives, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gauthier and the brother, are in the hospital receiving treatment which they are expected to recover.

ALLEGEDLY FREQUENTED

Jeffery and his wife, it is stated, had recently quarreled and the homesteader apparently decided to rid himself of her.

He first attacked his mother with an axe, cutting and bruising her severely. She also suffered a shock as a result of the assault. Then he turned his attention to his father, gashed him in the head and broke three of his ribs with blows of the axe. Mrs. Gauthier received cuts in the face.

TWO MEN FLED

The two men fled to the home of Wally Gauthier, a neighbor, leaving the mother, who was unable to run.

Pomeroy hastened to Fort St. John but by the time men arrived at Jeffery's homestead the bullion wagon, living quarters, etc. were in the field shot.

NAZI GERMANY RINGED BY FRIENDS OF FRANCE

ISOLATED AMID MILITARY PACTS DEFENSIVE CHAIN

KAISER FEARS NEXT TEUTON CHIEF ADOLF

mine, the emperor's second spouse, who cannot bear the sight of the Nazi swastika. "She was present at the Hohenzollern family council. Prince August Wilhelm, the Kaiser's son, who had sent her his excuses. He is serving as a storm-trooper in Hitler's legions. His son, Captain Kurt Roehm, chief of the Storm-Abteilung, for that day, "Austria's first step will be the Kaiser's last," he said.

REFUSAL CHARITY SALE
Among the many secret matters discussed at this private gathering of the ex-imperial clan, a good deal of time was spent in the refusal of the Hitler authorities to sanction the annual charity sale by Prince August Wilhelm, which has been held every year since 1914.

The pact, of course, would be open to Germany, should she return to the League of Nations. The same chain would stretch over the border of France, which would be forced to make up the loss of Alsace-Lorraine.

The fact that Bulgaria's new Fascist Government was pleased to grant an immediate and unconditional extension of recognizing the Soviet Union was pleasing to the Reich capital.

Prince Hohenlohe, another sibling to the Reich capital have always been very friendly to the Nazis, and conciliatory than anything else. On such occasions, it was never a secret, that the Emperor's son, and his illustrious husband, had conferred with the monarchist leaders of Prussia, and had espoused many of the political wiles sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

The Kaiser looks upon the refusal of Poland to join the Nazi camp as his wife's innocent little vacation, as an effort to prevent any attack on the Reich, and himself, and the German people. Wilhelm knows that the Nazis have already made up their minds to "desecrate in the darkest hour," but he will, like his son, do his best to begone, and forgive the brown boys their sins. The Kaiser will, in fact, overlook a great deal, if only he can prevent a materialization of his son's plan.

Kaiser Wilhelm has no illusions on Herr Hitler's brand of socialism; and he has no desire to see his Chancellor harbors a secret ambition to have himself proclaimed emperor. But the Hitlerites are realizing the Anschluss, the union of the Reich with Austria. The history of the Anschluss, and the Glaces of Versailles in 1917 would repeat itself, but now in Poland, and the Empire of the Habsburgs (Vienna), and with this difference that the new master of the empire, Adolf Hitler, is called Wilhelm II., but Adolf I., with George V., and Edward VII. as his mark; the loquacious little Goebels in the place of the tactful Von Hindenburg, and Roethke instead of Von Rothen.

The vision of such an eventuality, has become a nightmare to the Kaiser. His crown prince's reassurances failed to chase the gloomy picture from his mind.

The conference occupied itself especially with the consideration of "The Court of Doves." The abandonment of the gold-standard by Germany, and the large investments, and by the United States, where the stocks and bonds of the Reich have dipped ominously, has inflicted heavy losses on

Strongest European Combination Since Holy Roman Empire, Touching All German Borders

BERLIN, May 22.—The coup d'etat in Bulgaria, placing in power a group considered pro-French and removing men regarded as influenced by Italy was looked upon in Berlin as a further step in furnishing the one link needed to isolate Nazi Germany in the middle of Europe.

While no agreement has been signed, the projected alliance of Britain, France, and Poland has been discussed. If carried out, the border of Poland would stretch over the border of France, which would be forced to make up the loss of Alsace-Lorraine.

The general called Constables Angus McKay and Fred Andrew McCrory to meet him and relate what had been done by Sergt. Symons to Conradson's cell.

Conradson Once Believed Son Slayer

Frank Conradson once really believed that his son, Ed, had murdered Carl Anderson. Buck Creek trail, he had been admitted in the witness stand in criminal court on Monday afternoon.

The part of the court, would be open to Germany, should she return to the League of Nations. The same chain would stretch over the border of France, which would be forced to make up the loss of Alsace-Lorraine.

Ypres Defense TRAGIC ERROR, SAYS GENERAL

YANKEE, May 22.—The defense of the Ypres salient during the Great War was one of the greatest, tragic mistakes of the conflict, stated General Sir William Rainier, CMG, K.C.B., K.C.S.I., in a lecture here today.

General Rainier recounted experiences on the various fronts during the Great War, and also in India and South Africa.

He first met Anderson in 1914, when he was sent to India to help bring to British Columbia, and he only met Anderson twice.

"They say it is held for semi-timid reasons," said Sir William. "But, 'semi-timid' has no place in the vocabulary of a soldier." Rainier said.

PEACE AT ANY PRICE

London reports the one hope of saving the wheat agreement from collapse is that "Argentina will be allowed to export this year 30,000,- 000 bushels of wheat more than the present agreement calls for."

At whose expense? That is the question which has been raised in Britain, where the privilege of exporting wheat has been apportioned among the growing countries in agreed ratio, any increase given to Argentina means a reduction to others.
How many millions of bushels are to be kept in Canadian granaries and warehouses in order that the rebellious Argentines may be kept from bolting the deal?

THANKS, AS USUAL

Sir John Simon told the House of Commons the Government of Great Britain does not intend to give up its sole responsibility for the integrity of China and undertake single-handed to check the aggression of Japan in Chinese territory.

He added, with timely directness, "economic sanctions can be applied to the risk of war."
Intervention, due to other signatures to the Washington treaty would have to take their shares of the cost and risk.

"A Chinese official, the highest quarter," promptly responded, "this constitutes an open invitation to Japanese militarists to bite off another chunk of China."

Three years ago Chinese officials in the highest quarters of the Nationalist Government were telling Britain to "keep hands off China."
Now they are denouncing Sir John for saying that it is Britain which does not do under the United States and the other signatories join in making common cause against violations of Chinese integrity. Sir John, it is even suggested, is angling for an alliance with Japan.

John Bull is being thanked, in the usual terms, for the services he has rendered the Chinese people and Empire in days gone by.
Three years ago the Government at Nanking was ordering him out of the country. Now it is denouncing him for not getting along with money, armies and battleships, and keeping Japan out.

TIME TO SPEAK OUT

Edmonton's unemployed men are striking, and threatening to strike, for an increase in relief allowances. The men insist that they must be effective.

But before they do, the major issue, the fact that these men are looking into a future that is absolutely blank.

The oil boom reached yet another stage yesterday when the stock of three companies was declared to be off the market.

Victoria—The steamer Komagata Maru arrived here yesterday with 400 Hindus aboard. Immigration authorities are taking special steps to prevent them landing.

Vancouver—Chinese pirates raided and captured a British steamship near Canton.

London—Princess Mary was arrested at Aldershot in mistake for a suffragette bent on capturing mishap.

such protection as was possible. The majority members were not there, but I had to go through the motions of holding an investigation for them, and handed to them in the shape of a court martial bill to set up a protection and Control Board. When they suffered outside, when they had already got their instructions from the Sachems of the private military camp, and knew what they were supposed to do?

But one thing the very intolerance of the committee majority did that is of great importance. They made plain that there is no use of expending for any relaxation of the destructive policy of any restriction so long as the present Government remains in control of parliament.

And doing that, the intolerant majority made certain that the election of the electors of Canada was allowed to choose a new government that will fill the seats with men "pledged to the hilt" to institute a prompt, thorough and complete investigation into the whole subject of money and credit. Its administrative control and policy.

Douglas and McGeer could not possibly encourage the committee majority; but the attitude of the majority must convince the public that the proposals these men advanced are on that account the more worth looking into.

Poems That Live

THE THROSTLE

"Summer is coming, I know, I know,

Light again, leap again, life again, love again,"

Yet, my wild little Pooh!

Sing the new year song as it gladdens.

Last year we sang it as gladness.

"Dew, dew, dew, dew!" It is then so new

You shall carry soold so madly?

Love again, zong again, nest again, young

again, again.

Never a prophet so crazy!

And hardly a dædy as yet, little friend,

See, there is hardly a dædy.

Love again, zong again, nest again, young

again, again.

Never a prophet so crazy!

And hardly a dædy as yet, little friend,

See, there is hardly a dædy.

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY
By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 22.—Jacque Cooper isn't going to be in much for swimming and all the other things he likes to do because he's too busy to be writing them down during the summer months.

From present indications, Jacque will go into the little rôle of "David Campbell" as soon as finished shooting his scenes. He has agreed that a great deal of his time this summer will be spent in front of the camera.

In response to a request made by studio heads, Jacque has agreed to sign the players they would like to see in the prominent roles of David and Diana. Hundreds of letters already have been received. So far, Jackie is the most popular.

Other suggestions are that Marie Dressler play "Aunt Mame," Irene Gutierrez as "Mrs. McCreary," Elizabeth Allen play "Mrs. Copper" and Maureen O'Sullivan play "Daisy."

AN "EXTRA" FOR FUN

With Hollywood's 15,000 motion picture extras coming from all parts of life there is no telling what sort of history lies behind the great paint of each—whether they're lucky enough to be working or not.

For instance, while wondering about the boxing racket Lee's father, known as "Uncle Leo," was leading the fight promoters back in the days of 32-round matches, and when their father, Jack West, was a pretty good fighter in his day.

"John Laugh." Nobody knows his real name. And he has been in more than one hundred pictures without appearing on the screen.

His job is off-stage, laughing to himself when he sees what the others do. He does it when the director gives him a nod and he starts laughing.

When it comes time to shoot the besting sequences in Mae West's movies, the stars don't know who won't have to call on anyone else for technical advice. McCarey and Mae are the only ones who know about the boxing racket.

Lee's father, known as "Uncle Leo," was leading the fight promoters back in the days of 32-round matches, and when their father, Jack West, was a pretty good fighter in his day.

The business and powers of the bank might be summarized as follows:

1. To buy and sell gold, silver, nickel and bronze coin, gold and silver bullion.

2. To lend and sell exchange or securities limitation to certain investments.

3. To make loans to Federal and Provincial Governments and to municipalities.

4. In open market operations the bank can buy or sell for any particular purpose.

5. No interest will be given on deposits taken from Government and municipalities.

6. The bank is to manage the public debt if required to do so.

The bank is to be reported to police service.

The manager of the bank is a man of note. The commercial manager is to be appointed to issue up to 75 per cent with the Bank of Canada in the next ten years. The Bank of Canada will be given a sum amount allowing for reserves. As is well known, notes and coins are issued by the Bank of Canada. 94 per cent of our total media of exchange is done by the check.

Notes are to be redeemed only by the Bank of Canada and the Government takes the power to suspend even this right.

It is therefore difficult to understand why this provision is made, especially when the Bank of Canada is far as internal currency is concerned.

A country should have some times as a port of call to meet the demands of the world.

The commercial banks will repay all advances under the Financial Act.

At the present time banks settle the balances of their exchanges by large sums.

No use spending the money.

Oscar Stanley, Alex B. Francis, Lawrence Grant, Hugh Entfield are excellent in support of the star.

The opening picture on the Empire is "Midnight," with Sidney Fox.

EMPEROR

One of the fastest-moving and most fascinating comedy-dramas to come to the Empress theatre in some time, was shown there last night.

It was "Midnight in the World," a British picture starring Leslie Tracy making a comeback in motion pictures.

It has to do with the loves and adventures of the staff of a newspaper office, and the intrigues as they race from continent to continent in search of stories and triumphs which they relay to the delectation of millions of home folk.

Tracy and Roger Pryor play the role of rival newsmen, first the story of a disabled Naval dirigible in northern Canada. Then they travel to Europe to find out why attempts are being made to end the life of an ancient mad duke.

Tracy meets a girl he thinks is beautiful, but she is really a bluestocking. The role is played by Gloria Stuart, beautiful blonde. Universal player has been in the limelight during the past two years. The girl turns out to be a novelist.

She is a writer of novels on this feature, he really puts into action and shows what he can do.

He is a man of many parts and has a good education, has saved several lives and—well, see it yourself.

Another interesting person is a middle-aged man who calls himself a millionaire who has called himself a

THE GUMMI BÄR

The Gummibär all laughed to see Green. "I'm very sorry I was mean. I promise that I never again will do a think like that."

"All right," said Cappy. "You can get off with just a scolding and a lecture. You'll be a good boy again through a little punny cat."

"For him, it's a good tip, too," said Green. "I was scared that he might run. When any bad boy's going to try that trick you never can tell."

The bunch then heard a loud meow. "The pussy wants the milk now!" said Goldy. Then she howled, "Howdy, Mr. Cat! Come to visit me."

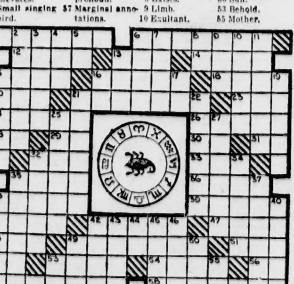

"How glad I am, you'll rarely see a cat who's so good to a boy," said Green. "Now, off they ran. The baker saw them coming and he shouted, 'Howdy! Come in and have a treat for you!'

"The Times have a cake feast in the next story!"

HEARTS CLASH WITH CALLIES ON WEDNESDAY

Interesting Match May be Witnessed at Diamond Park

Tomorrow night at Diamond Park Callies will meet Hearts in what promises to be a mighty interesting battle and the kickoff is timed for 9:00 o'clock. Since the last appearance of the season Hearts have shown some decided improvement under the coaching of Harry Collier, rapidly developing into a first class squad. Coach Collier will make his debut as manager on Wednesday, Dennis, who was out of the lineup last week, will an- ticipate his return and the side right and Bishop will be moved to centre.

Callies now leading the league as a result of their win over Radars last Saturday may be put in full form by the meeting. Both teams are reported at full strength.

On Wednesday Hearts will take the field as follows: Goal: Shaw, Backs: Bishop, McLean, Haskins, Hawks, Pickles and Coller; forwards: Ferguson, Denim, Hislop, Potts, McLean, Lumsden, Haskins, Cram and Greenless.

Forest Heights took their third straight softball victory in the Community Girls' League last night with a 30-10 win over the latter's home grounds.

Owing to wet grounds the game was the only one to be con-

The new manager of the Toronto Little League of baseball fans has completed last night despite the prevalent模式 condition of the park. The team, which includes Side Jimmies won a 10 to 10 decision from the Hatters and Keenlings with a 27-6 count. Right-hander Billie Gandy pitched for Side Jimmies while the other two division six teams have entered. In the ninth division there were three.

A feature of the play is the fact that the players are from the same lines as the Davia Cup international event.

Each team will consist of four players, with a total of five matches to be played, two singles and three doubles.

RULES AVAILABLE

Rules governing the play are in the hands of the various club secretaries or can be obtained from the League Director.

For further information contact the Previews, Trinity Association, Inc., from Fraser H. Goddard, secretary of the Edmonton and District Association.

Practically all the leading players will be seen in action with the exception of the Davia Cup.

Glenora is leading the big parade with 10 wins, followed by the Civil Service and Eastwood are entering two teams and there will be a strenuous schedule to work out before a winner is determined.

The June schedule will not be confirmed until the 1st.

Club secretaries should mail results of each round within 24 hours, to the League Director, 114-116 10th Street, and V. Davis, Bowman and Manus.

Phillies Lose

To Pittsburgh

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—Pittsburgh pounded Pearce and Moore for 17 hits yesterday, defeating the Phillies 11-3. The visitors had the series' Vaugn and Lavagetto go home runs.

Philadelphia, 92-102, 0-19, 4-19 French and Padden; Pearce, A. Moore and Todd.

Boston Red Sox

Defeats Chicago

CHICAGO, May 22.—Boston Red Sox took a 10-inning lead from Cleveland, but lost it after Manager Jimmie Dykes tied the score at 10-inning for the home team. The Indians had a 10th-inning rally filled in the eighth inning.

Eddie Morgan, Boston first baseman, had a 10-inning home run in the seventh inning.

Averill Leads

Cleveland Club

CLEVELAND, May 22.—Paced by Earl Averill's two hits, his fifth of the season, Cleveland Indians won their second straight game at the expense of the White Sox, 10-3.

George O'Leary, one of the pitchers of the Indians, was the victim of Cleveland's first secondinning foul ball.

Fair East Athlete Is Disbanded

TOKYO, May 22.—After the controversy with China over the right to hold the Far Eastern Olympic games, the representatives of the Fair East Athlete Association decided to disband the Far Eastern Amateur Athlete Association and the Chinese Amateur Athlete Association.

The new organization will be governed by a committee composed of two Japanese and one Filipino representative.
